YEAR BOOK '96

Editor's Note

For the first time, it has become necessary this year to levy a part charge for our magazine. The school council has made the decision to spread their donations from fundraising revenues over a wider area and with the increasing numbers of magazines we need to have printed as a result of increased roll numbers, the part charge became necessary.

Thanks to all staff and students who have provided copy for the magazine. It has been gratifying to see just how big a part the students play in the whole life of the school. We really do have a creative and energetic group of young people to work with.

We extend our appreciation also to the many business people in town who have sponsored us. Without their support this issue would not have been possible. We urge all members of our school community to support them in turn by shopping locally for goods and services.

Best Wishes for a Happy Christmas and a Prosperous New Year to all readers.

Message from the Principal

Tihei mauri ora! Tena Kotou Katoa. Náku te rourou. Nau te rourou. Ka ora te manuhiri. Kia Orana. Talofa Lava. Greetings to you all.

When I arrived at Forest View in January this year I was immediately impressed with the very positive feeling amongst the staff, who made me feel very welcome. This was soon confirmed when the students returned to school. I knew straight away that this was a good school.

This feeling has been confirmed to me in many ways throughout the year. I have been very impressed with the many opportunities that are offered to Forest View students, and the way they take them up. A highlight of the year was the visit from the Education Review Office at the end of Term Three. Their report stated that "the school provides a quality learning environment for students with a notably positive tone at both school and classroom levels. Achievement is acknowledged and celebrated and board and staff are unrelenting in their promotion of high standards of work and behaviour." ERO concluded that "students at the school are provided with extensive opportunities to develop their academic, social, cultural and sporting abilities. Levels of achievement in those areas where achievement information is available are generally above expectations. The strong governance and leadership of the school and the dedication of staff to the needs of students should ensure that their progress and achievement continue to be enhanced during their time at Forest View High School." This was a very good report indeed. The challenge is now there for us to keep improving this already high standard.

This has been a great year for our cultural and sporting groups. On the cultural side, our Maori Culture Groupu Te Piringatahi are going from strength to strength and are looking forward to a trip to Asia in January.

The Polynesian Club have reached an impressive standard of performance in a very short time, and look great in their new costumes. The School Choir has also grown in strength, and our entry in the Auckland Stage Challenge came home with four awards. We are having a Junior Production for the first time at the end of the year. On the sporting side, the school has entered teams in several codes in regular competition. Highlights have included the First XV Rugby trip to Surfers Paradise, the Under 15 Rugby team being Waikato Champions and the First XIII Rugby League team qualifying for the National Knock-out tournament. Many pupils have gained representative status, and placings in national competitions.

Academically, school students received a fine set of results in Maths, Science and Technology competitions, and we look forward to School Certificate and Bursary results.

This year we introduced modules to the Senior School. These have been a great success and students have been able to gain credits on the National Qualifications Framework. Next year the availability of modules and the great array of courses will be greatly extended, and we look forward to Core Music and Art classes at the third form level. All students will be able to study courses which meet their needs and in which they will have success. We will also be running some classes before and after school so that students have more choices.

The school buildings are being continually upgraded and next year we should have a new heating system and major work done on the prefabs.

I have been very impressed with the calibre of the Board of Trustees and the Staff, and with the level of parent and Whanau support. My thanks to all for a great year. To the students, keep up the good work, and aim for the best at all times. For those leaving school, I wish you every success in your future lives.

Kia Ora

Staff Notes

This year began with a dramatic change to our staff. No, it wasn't the return of Mr Blucher to head a "young and invigorated management team". It was the fact that The Gentle Glaswegian was no longer the sweetest accent to be heard in the staff room. Our Wullie had to compete with a range of imports from the South African veldt to the Canadian prairie. However, his sense of humour still remained the most scatological, especially over shared reminiscences with the HOD English.

The school began the year fully staffed but soon musical chairs became a regular occurrence as Trish Priscott was elevated to Putaruru as HOD English and Jo Chemis began to climb the ladder of deanship. When Tim Hignett avoided a prolonged acquaintance with us and followed in Trish's wake to Putaruru and the Government settled our pay and conditions claim, it seemed that almost everyone had moved onward and upward in the PR stakes. Rumour had it that our esteemed Geography department would have a joint award in the areas of map-reading and meteorology. While the dust was settling, Ms Graham was farewelled as she left to aid the falling roll situation in Wanganui. In her place we welcome back a former pupil Ms Jo Risbridge as HOD Social Sciences. In the fields though where it counted, the staff made their presence felt. The touch team was boosted by several new members and under the hectoring of our coach, actually was undefeated in term 4 at the time of writing. Ms Eivers and others made the advance study of equine behaviour a regular Friday event, while the quality of the lunches improved with the addition of our very own barbecue and the consequent rush to bring the best and rarest for others to envy. There are certain staff members whose achievements outshine all others. We must mention Mike van der Boom for being so organised that not only could he win the North Island Coast to Coast, but also have his junior reports written months before the due date. And lest we forget, there is a touch player par excellence and the perennial winner of the Dipstick Award, the DP so organised he could reallocate Labour Day, run a Mini out of petrol, and still chase up detentions and uniforms while smiling.

At the end of the year we must say farewell to several staff. Jo Patikura and Willy Ford who depart to further their teaching qualifications, Dave Elder who has decided that geography is better than sport and so will live and teach in Thames. While the technology department is losing Mr Burr, who leaves to take over as HOD at Tokoroa High School. Raj Prasad also departs for a year's leave of absence in Australia.

To all those who we cannot mention for fear of another Winebox enquiry, our apologies, but the limitations of space and the frantic demands of our editor require that we must close or not only will we end up with the job next year, but also have all of the yellow slips going till the turn of the century.

School Council

The 1996 Student Council was made up of sixteen senior students. With the recent introduction of the Lake system, we saw four students from each Lake (two sporting, two cultural) forming the bulk of the council, and a small number of junior representatives.

The Council was chaired by Glenn MacPherson and Lisa Edgar, with Eboni Frear as Secretary and Andrea MacDonald as Treasurer. Within the Council various sub-committees were set up, with varying degrees of success.

Our Social and Mufti committees helped with the running and organising of these events, whereas our S.A.D.D. (Students Against Drunk Driving) committee planned the recent mock-crash and guest speakers for assemblies.

The Uniform committee came up with the changes to the current uniform being introduced, with the Environment committee overseeing litter duty and working on the infamous "Bus Shelter". Senior Workday was our biggest money raiser, with over $3,400 coming in. Over the year a percentage of money has been allocated to various sporting and cultural activities, such as the 1st XV's dress uniform for their Australian trip, the Junior Boys Volleyball transportation to tournaments, and the Drama Club.

There is still a substantial amount left, with plans to spend it on upgrading the present Library couches, the Cultural Clubs' travel expenses, and a percentage to two junior members of our school competing in the Pan Pacific Athletic Championships in Australia at the end of the year.

Thanks must go to Mrs Sommerville (Teacher in Charge) and all Councillors who regularly attended meetings.

Student Leaders

HEAD-BOY - GLENN MACPHERSON

Glenn's interests include all sports, particularly Rugby (and the 1st XV's trip to Australia), Cricket, Water-skiing and Reading??? Next year Glenn hopes to attend Wellington or Massey Teachers College.

DEPUTY HEAD-BOY - TALA HASINI

Tala also enjoys playing sports, in particular Basketball, Rugby and Pool. In 1997 Tala hopes to go to Waikato Polytechnic to do either Catering or Sports and Leisure.

HEAD-GIRL - LISA EDGAR

Lisa enjoys watching movies, "entertaining", playing Hockey and Skiing (when the mountain's not blowing up!). Next year Lisa hopes to attend either Auckland or Wellington University while working towards a BA Degree.

DEPUTY HEAD-GIRL - EBONI FREAR

Eboni enjoys playing sport, especially Netball and being a part of the Dragonboating team. Spending time with friends is important. Eboni is coming back to school next year to do her seventh form year, hoping it will be an enjoyable and successful one.

Arapuni Lake

Arapuni has entered into the spirit of inter-lake competition with a devil may care attitude. We were not there for the winning we were there for the taking part. This carefree but happy attitude dominated our efforts on the sports field this year. In the athletic and swimming sports we managed numerous entries but only brief successes, but the credit for the larger number of competitors put forward must go to the enthusiasm of our Lake Sports leaders Bevan and Karla, whose untiring enthusiasm meant we came, we saw and we participated. This was noted by the large and effective banners many of our members provided at the sports, a glimpse of our creative side.

This came to the fore in our Lake Day where the epitome of bad taste was exhibited by many from our juniors, who showed very little fashion sense, to Brandon Edgar whose dress was a cross between a nerdish scarecrow and a Vegas comedian. The effort put into the day was tremendous with a variety of methods used to persuade other lakes to part with their money for our cause. The most effective after the food stalls was "The Dunking Machine". Organised by Mrs Grahame, and with the hose manned by Karl Mapp, it provided entertainment for all, with a notable response to cold water being noted by some of the braver staff and seniors who underwent its ministrations. The effort put in by the lake seniors to the day, especially Emma Jones was appreciated.

THE SNIPER

One dark night
not a thing to be heard,
but the slow flow of the stream
and the informer was heard.

The man looked up from the armoured car,
one shot, and his head lay looking bizarre.
The enemy shot out.
No-one to be seen.
"I'm shot!" I fell to my knees.

In pain I bit my teeth together,
for I did not have fear.
I knew that the daylight should not find me here.
I thought of a ruse; it succeeded.
I could see his head.
Bang! went my revolver,
the enemy was DEAD.
Poem by Anwar Barlow

AS MY HOME DISAPPEARS

One step to go and out of sight,
I kept on going, not turning back.
"On board" they say.
So on board I go.
Away from all the violence and noise.

It was quite good out there
The smell of the sea and the fresh cold air.
I'm off to England to leave the violence back there.

I don't want to fight so it's far away from here,
The lies and the people who just don't care,
They should stop all the fighting and getting in people's hair.

Religious intolerance is just not fair
Let religions mix and let us be free.
Poem by Anwar Barlow

STARS

Shining holes in the sky
Up so far and up so high
Twinkling, twinkling all night long
In the morning they'll be gone.

Our assemblies varied throughout the year, frequently being hit by the missing Monday syndrome. However, there were some extremely interesting guest speakers, ranging from our own sportsclimbers to ex-pupils who were able to talk about how the school had contributed to their lives. The Baton of Excellence, which was awarded each fortnight, also recognised individuals in the lake whose contribution to the school or lake activities stood out. The recipients ranged across the lake from Emma Jones for her efforts in hockey and lake activities to Michael Allen for his achievements in sportsclimbing.

The inter-lake lunchtime activities were not as successful for Arapuni as could have been hoped for, but those who did participate did so with an unflagging spirit and endless enthusiasm, even bearing in mind the pointed comments from other lakes. Thanks must go to our lake leaders, Tala, Lisa, Bevan and Karla; all of our activities would not have been as enjoyable without their efforts. Their time and effort has set an example that can be built on by next year's seniors. The efforts of Mrs Clarke and her band of tutors are also appreciated, who can forget their willingness to get wet for the cause on Arapuni Day. The final word must be left to an anonymous lake leader when she said, "we did not win, but we had fun doing it".

FIRE

Flames of orange, red and yellow
Leaping over the wood
Heating up the place.
The wood has burnt
The flames are dying
Only hot embers are left.

FLOWERS

Beautiful radiant colours
Silky petals of all different shapes
Basking in the sun
Spraying lovely scents in the air
Swaying in the soft breeze.

UMBRELLA

It is raining.
It is pouring
I want to go outside.
My old man is snoring upstairs
He hit his head on the post of his bed and he didn't get up this morning.
I still want to get out of this stinking house.
I decided to go anyway even though my mother told me not to.
I did up my jacket, grabbed my raincoat, put it on, then grabbed my umbrella and stepped outside.
I went over to a puddle and jumped up,
Then landed and made a big splash.

A ROSE

A rose is like a human life
breathing, growing and living.
It starts off as a little bud growing bigger and bigger.
Soon the leaves start to go brown and fall off.
Soon the rose is gone
just like a human life.

THE CAR

A wrecked old car was she very pleasing to me
I knew one day
she'd be okay
So I towed her to my house where she was as quiet as a mouse
But I always knew what she would be as good as she could
So I fixed her up real fast even though it may not last

The number of lives it claims
But there was one thing that stuck out
It was a car wreck
It was completely covered under a ton of rubble

friends care and help
friends always are there even if they are arguing nothing can beat friendship

THE OLD SHEARING SHED

Long, long ago, there was this house that was used for sheep shearing.
It was a very old house.
Every day after work the farmers would go out and into the barn
Through the corridor to the shearing house
And start shearing the sheep.
It was a very easy job and the farmers loved doing it.

"ALLERGIES"

Everyone loves to hate these things.
For some unknown reason everybody has one.
Unfortunately for me I am allergic to hay, long grass, pollen, and last

Maraetai Lake

Maraetai Day was on the 25th October 1996.

The day consisted of Top-Town activities such as egg and spoon race, pass the parcel, over and under, sack race, head on the stick, three-legged race and dizzy izzy.

There were two Maraetai teams, one mixed team and one Ohakuri team involved in the day. All round there were 150 students and 10 staff members competing.

Maraetai once again 'kicked butt' and took all the prizes, consisting of 10 gym memberships.

Mr Whatarau won the staff raffle, consisting of a fruit flan (yum). All round a good day was had by all. The weather was great too. Maraetai Day was a big success, we raised a lot of money.

MARAETAI NUMBER ONE!

As far as sporting goes at Forest View, Maraetai is definitely number one, whether individual or in a team we have always come somewhere.

THE INTERLAKE COMPETITIONS

Maraetai came first in Athletics, X-country and Swimming, first equal in Indoor soccer, and second in Volleyball and Netball.

X COUNTRY

As well as coming first as a lake, we had a lot of good individual results. In Junior Girls we had Ata Smith who finished second. Junior Boys, Darrin West came second and Kevin McDonald third. Intermediate Boys with BJ Phillips coming in third. Senior Girls we had our deputy head girl Eboni Frear with a first, and in our Senior Boys we had Grant Sarich first and Nikolai Van Der Einden second.

MID ISLAND X COUNTRY

Even though the weather wasn't the best, we were delighted when BJ Phillips came tenth, Eboni Frear came fifth and Grant Sarich came eighth.

SWIMMING SPORTS

The swimming sports were the first Interlake event held and everyone in Maraetai got into the spirit, whether it was cheering for our mates or painting people's faces red. All of this team spirit ended off with us winning the swimming sports as well as Rana Motu becoming the Junior Girl Champion and Kiel Harpur getting runner-up Junior Boy. Every final winner at the swimming sports made a record as it was the first time the swimming sports were held at the Tokoroa Indoor Pools.

ROLLER SKATING

Frances Bailey was selected for a NZ invitation Roller Skating team to compete in Japan.

Raymond Everest, Kiel Harpur and Kevin McDonald were among the twenty boys to be chosen for the Waikato under 14 rugby team. Raymond was also selected for the captain for this team, and to top this off...

Raymond Everest and Kevin McDonald were chosen as part of the NZ Junior Athletic team to compete at the Pacific games in December.

Ohakuri Lake

Lake Leaders	Andrea McDonald Glenn MacPherson
Sports Leaders	Adele Burnett Alana Te Whaiti
Dean	Mrs R. Sommerville
Lake Tutors	Mr D. Clark, Ms S. Crosby, Mrs R. Paki, Mr C. Rice, Mr G. Steyn, Mr M. Van Der Boom, Mrs H. Williamson.

This year, the first for Ohakuri with the new structure of vertical forms, has been one in which we've tried to create a team environment and the spirit to make it a success. Thanks go to Andrea, Glenn, Adele and Alana for all the extra time put in as leaders. It was really appreciated by the Dean.

The year began with training the 1996 Peer Support leaders. This time these leaders were working with the Year 9 students in their Tutor Groups. It was with real enthusiasm that the sixteen trained leaders awaited the arrival of 28 additions to both Ohakuri and Forest View. Once a week in Term 1 the Peer Support programme was worked through.

A small group of Seniors lead by Katrina Collins (who has since departed for Norway on AFS), decided to raise funds by having an Easter Raffle which was very successful.

Inter Lake competition got underway with the Swimming Sports. The team spirit was good but the green crepe paper left its mark at the pool. (Not to be repeated in that setting). Ohakuri was runner-up to Maraetai with Yukio Flinte being Junior Boys' champion.

Next up the Athletics Sports. Ms Crosby made a banner which was proudly hung on the fence of the tennis courts, Mrs Paki made green Rosettes and Aaron Mutua got the Cook Island drums ready to roll and give Ohakuri support, and although we did well and individuals won several events and we won several relays, it wasn't enough to lift us from the runner-up spot again. OBM was our first Tutor Group and came third overall. Adele Burnett was second in Intermediate Girls, Kurt Williams second Intermediate Boys, Michelle Newton first Junior Girls, Kelly Rakei and Emma Orotunga third equal Junior Girls. Ohakuri athletes went on to Mid Island and then the Waikato Champs.

Cross Country Day - Yes runner-up again but there were notable achievements with Daniel Moore winning the Junior Boys' event, Adele Burnett the Senior Girls and Paul Shattock second Intermediate Boys. OSn was the first Ohakuri Tutor Group and fourth overall. Daniel Moore went on to gain third placing, Adele Burnett first, Kurt Williams fourth, and Paul Shattock fifth in their races at Mid Island.

In other Inter-Lake Sports we finally managed to win both the Volleyball and Indoor Soccer but in the Netball it was back to second. None-the-less it was the participation and spirit in all events that was the key thing and Ohakuri had plenty of those.

Ohakuri students have excelled at top levels in a wide range of activities and are to be congratulated.

It would be great in 1997 to see all Ohakuri students setting their goals to high levels, and striving to attain them in all aspects of school life. A commitment to all Ohakuri students achieving to their full potential is what we will all be working towards.

Ohakuri Lake Day

On the 19th September Ohakuri Lake held the most enjoyable day Forest View students have had in a long time. This was accomplished by the students of the Ohakuri Lake council, Staff and many more.

The day started with the cake stall at interval which was well organised by Andrea McDonald and catered by Andrea once again, Rachel Toy and Katherine Wilson. This went very well and then the next greatest thrill of the day was the lunchtime show.

Successfully winning the eyes of the packed audience, the Polynesian Cultural Group performed with great enthusiasm and the support from them was great as not all of them were in Ohakuri. Once again the audience's eyes were fixed to the stage as "5 Piece" sang their tune, harmonised songs.

But I really think the highlight of the show undoubtedly went to the Ohakuri models strutting their stuff in the fashion parade. All models realised it was more difficult to be a model than they'd thought, but it took heaps of courage and they all did really well. Thanks to the girl models, Rachel Newton, Michelle Newton, Adele Burnett and Amy Marsters who walked the catwalk scared out of their wits and oh so very speedy. We must not forget our macho boys Glenn MacPherson, Guy Winikerei, Lance Bonnar, who thought he was the "pro", and last of all Tama Allen who was the most difficult one to get organised.

Thanks to the extraordinary DJ's Rebecca Miller, Kelly Eisenhut and the stage crew. Alana Te Whaiti was a confident M.C. and helped it run smoothly. This fashion parade wouldn't have been successful without the sponsorship from Strutt Streetwear who sponsored the fashion show and the prizes worth $460.00. Lucky Year 9 student Erin Patterson won $200.00 of it and Michael Allen second prize.

Mufti Day was part of the day and set alive with the theme of "Flower Power", Hippie style. A lot of effort was put into this theme but there could only be two winners, Rachel Newton winning $20.00 music vouchers and Gareth Williams winning $10.00. There were a number of teachers who tried to get into the act but moreso just plainly embarrassed themselves. Mrs Paki could have easily gone for the main role in 'Rambo', while Mr Van Der Boom, Miss Crosby, Mr Steyn and Mrs Sommerville tried their best but didn't fit the style.

Unfortunately this day had to come to an end but continued the next day with great selling of chop suey, and we can't forget Mr Rice who cooked great sausages along with help from ORI, sauce girls Lydia Watarawi and Ruth Graham. We bring this success to an end and can proudly say we raised $730.00. We can only be called the greatest Lake full of great fishes who swim well!!

FIRE

Leaping, spreading,
Eating, sucking, deadly
Heat so white hot,
Fire.

Katrina Bridson

PEACE

Friendly, quiet,
Stillness, gentle, accordance,
No warfare marring it.
Peace.

SPACE

It reaches on and on
Ne'er to be conquered.
Black as night,
Such a sight.
To survive is much a fight.

The planets are the owners,
In their galaxies
You could not,
Reach a spot,
that you think is the top.

And even though we may try,
It will take forever.
To reach a time,
When space is mine,
For that its heights we have to climb.

EXTINCTION

The poachers crouch
In their jeep
With their fingers
Ready to pull.
Taking advantage
Of its helplessness
they fire.

The beast goes down
Never to get up.
The horn is cut
The carcass left.
Killed for money.
A savage mockery
Of this great beast.

And only thirty left,
To live and go on.
The Rhino is about to become,
A legend...
a story...
of the past...

TIME

Mocked, teased, the same thing again
To all those people who call
'Four eyes'.
Can't you think of something more original.
You can't do it forever
Like an illness,
The victims develop immunity.
They no longer care.
In fact, in their minds
They laugh at your wasted breath,
and time.
It no longer hurts
They go away not crying but,
'Nice attitude you have there.'
It no longer matters.

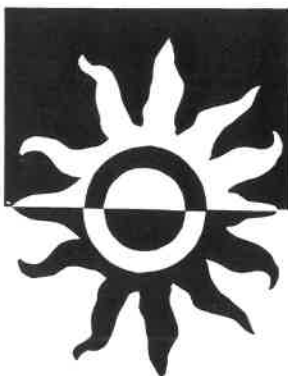

Maybe one day you'll find
That it's not us that miss out,
but you.

Katrina Bridson

TIGERS

Beauty and with muscle power,
A beast to which all things cower.
The tiger stalks, alone it goes,
Until its prey, is in its death throws.
Taking the meat,
Back to its cubs.
She would die to protect,
The ones she loves.

EMOTION

Fiery, gentle,
Loving, hating, neutral.
It rules our actions,
Emotion

Katrina Bridson

NATURE

From the beauty of the trees,
To the buzzing of the bees.
The waving of the grass,
As we walk on past.
The water as it ripples,
To herbs made into pills.
Man cannot try to rule it,
Rules nature doesn't fit.
Nature is always fair,
Right down to the last hair.
It evens itself out,
That, I have no doubt.
Nature Endures.

Katrina Bridson

SHE

I could not live without her in my life,
She's the one I need by my side when I'm in strife.
She's the one I look up to most,
because her nature and will is as strong as a concrete post.
She's the shoulder I lean on when times
are tough,
She's the person who's there when my life
is rough.
She gives me support and encouragement
every day,
She's too much of a gift there is no way I could repay.
She looks out for me in every way she can,
She helps me out and will always lend me a hand.
She's the one I need to appreciate more,
I am the one she loves and works for.
She is the best, I could ask for no better,
I wouldn't swap her for anything.
She's my Mum.

Rebecca Miller

FRIENDS

She sits by herself,
It can't be good for her health
She talks to no-one,
She has no fun.
She looks so sad,
If only she had what I had.
"Friends"
Friends that will be there till the end
Friends that are there to help you mend.
Friends that will stick by your side,
Friends that will confide.
Friends that are part of your life,
Friends that help you out when you're in strife.
Friends that you can rely on
Friends that you can lean upon.
Friends are special and unique,
They brighten up your life
and put a smile on your face.

HIDE AWAY

I once ran away to a place where I could be all by myself alone and free.
I liked to sit high on a hill and wondered why the world wasn't still.
This planet is a magnificent place,
I sit staring imagining what it's like in space.
The stillness and peace that I can feel,
it's all around it seems so real.
And now it's time to depart,
with all the thoughts that are close to my heart.

Rachel Toy

PLEASE NOTICE ME

My only wish is for you to notice me,
My feelings for you, you cannot see.
I can't tell you what I feel for you.
Cause I'm scared at what you will do.
Will I be rejected or will you be mine,
My love for you will hide until the right time.
You speak to me and I buzz out.
"Please notice me" is what I'd like to shout.

Michelle Newton

JEALOUSLY

You were supposed to be all mine,
You were my light, you made the sun shine.
Now you have a girl you love so deep,
You are now hers to have and to keep.
We were meant to be
You were my only destiny.
I hate her for taking you away,
I feel like stealing you every day.
You look in her eyes so sweetly,
Though I'm sure you see the love from me.
It's all cause you never looked at me as though you cared.
It's too late now cause now I'm dead.

Michelle Newton

Gather round and listen here,
A poem that you'll want to hear.
It's of a dove and pollution and man,
All of these three go hand and hand.
The first is of the snow white dove,
A symbol of peace and hope and love.
As it flew through the smoggy air,
It was in shame and in fear.
To see people who do not care,
Walking round almost bare.
For pollution has now become,
What people try to overcome.
A place twisted with fearful lies,
Corruption rules who lives or dies.
As it went to fly away,
A voice spoke up 'Please do stay.'
'I still have hope and peace and love,'
Said the small boy to the dove.
'I will preach this far and wide,
Through man's hatred and his pride.
The dove quit very pleased with this,
Acknowledged him with a twist,
To see a small and little boy,
Fiddling with a little toy.
Suddenly it flew away. To come back some other day.
The boy is one now with a mission,
To bring man unto submission.
To help right the error of his ways,
Over many, many, many days.

Whakamaru Lake

Whakamaru, the lake with the longest name and the biggest reputation. A lake full of enlightened young students who were not ashamed to laugh at themselves in the face of adversity.

The staff and students of Whakamaru had a close bond and a good feeling of unity, we were not prepared to let any other lake make fun of us just because they had three times as many points in the inter-lake competition, no, we just smiled and said "at least our t-shirts stand out!". From the very start of the year we were at a disadvantage. One of the smallest lakes, we lacked the brilliant sports people that lakes such as Maraetai were blessed with (no Mrs Priscott, we're sure you had nothing to do with it) but we struggled on and had a very enjoyable and successful year in other areas.

A multi-talented staff saw that Whakamaru always looked good. Thanks especially to Mr Telfer and Mr MacDonald for producing inspiring signs with which to cheer our competitors on. The other teachers in Whakamaru who all played their special part were Mr Clarke, Mr Prasad, Mrs Yukich, Mrs Sandhu, Mr Jones and of course, the ever present, eager to help, wonderful dean, Mrs Crum. We also would like to take this opportunity to thank one of our departed teachers Miss Chemis, who was bound and gagged and forced to join the evil Maraetai clan, (it seems that when they were in trouble they realised that the Whakamaru teachers were the best so they had to steal one of ours) but thanks for the time that you were with us anyway.

On Whakamaru day, many of our senior students gave up their bodies and their souls to raise a bit of cash for the form classes of our great lake. The slave auction was the highlight of the day with twenty students offering themselves to the highest bidders (it seemed that even some of the teachers had their eye on our students, eh Linda!). Over the course of the next week, senior and well respected Whakamaru students were seen wearing anything from brightly coloured odd rugby socks to big pink lipstick hearts on their faces; the things we do for money! Money was also raised from cake stalls and the steak sandwiches went down well; thanks Mr Burr for lending us your barbecue.

Special mention must be made of a few of Whakamaru's star performers over the year.

John Fitzpatrick, tenth in the North Island cycling champs.

James Hazeldine, captain for the New Zealand quarter horse team.

Donelle (teenie weenie beauty queen) Litten, Miss Teen Waikato.

Inge Flinte, student rep on the BOT.

Karin Griffin, Belle of the Ball.

Maria Brighthouse and Regan Eisenhut, Couple of the Ball.

Congratulations to all of these students.

This year has certainly been a successful and enjoyable one for the staff and students of Whakamaru and we'll be back next year continuing to Go For Gold!

THE FLAME

A single flame danced in the darkness.
Forever grasping, craving, longing
For the answer
Painfully searching for the unknown
Colours fading.
Quietly merging into nothing
Its soul retreats into despair

The river swiftly, silently flows by
No one cares
Then one day chaos, like war
The river has overflowed.
The people try to run
But where?
Slowly, silently they die
No one knows or cares
As the town was unknown.
Now it's gone.

THE SUN

As I stare at it,
Brightly lit,
Rolling across the sky,
A yellow ball,
Across flowers and all,
It casts its golden shine.

It rises on east,
A buttercup beast,
And at night it sets upon west,
Then it leaves the moon,
Like a great silver spoon,
Wearing twinkling stars like a crest.

But its beautiful rays,
Come back the next day,
They don't stay away for too long,
The golden blanket comes back,
No warmth does it lack
And accompanies the birds with their song.

This year has been very busy for us. We have maintained a large number in our group with 40+ members and the group has been very much in demand to perform at functions around Tokoroa.

The thrust of our efforts this year has been twofold - (1) The Secondary Schools' Maori Cultural Competitions for Waikato and Bay of Plenty and (2) Fundraising and preparation for our overseas tour to Hong Kong, Kuala Lumpur and Singapore in January 1997.

The Secondary Schools Festival was held in Tauranga and we were the fourth group to perform out of 34. We entered in the non-competitive section and put on a strong and entertaining performance. People commented on our high standard, both on and off the stage and our travel uniform really stood out with the distinctive colour and neatness. The students really enjoyed watching and appreciating the efforts of all the groups and could feel that the long hard hours of practice were really worth it. A lot of them will be looking forward to the next one in 1998.

Throughout the year we have been fundraising for an overseas trip which will take us to the Orient. Our many fundraising activities have included raffles, socials, catering, cleaning, casino evening, and golf tournament, stocktaking and performances and at the time of writing this we have nearly achieved our $50,000 goal. It has been a long year preparing for this event but those who are lucky to be going will gain many benefits from their contact with people from other countries and in turn will be able to give something of themselves.

Finally many thanks to the parents and friends of the group, to the staff who have allowed us to do things during school time and to the community at large for recognising and supporting the skills and achievements of Te Piringatahi.

Year 10 Camp at Totara Springs

I really thought camp was cool. I enjoyed everything about it. I did things I thought I would never do in my life. A lot of the activities we did involved heights, one of my many fears. But, with the encouragement from friends and teachers I managed to complete the activities.

I liked the activities that didn't involve heights like the 3Km walk to Firth Tower. Firth Tower was quite enjoyable, the thing I liked about Firth Tower was the history behind it, the things that people used in the olden days and the information given and also the sights. I enjoyed Self Defence too. I really learnt how to defend myself and what to do in situations where people want to fight or attack you. The one activity I really, really enjoyed was the Confidence Course. That was so choice. You have to use skills and trust some of the obstacles. The main obstacles for me were the Flying Fox and the Burmatrail. On the Flying Fox, it must have taken me 10 minutes to just jump off the platform, because of my fear of heights but I managed to do it, and then wanted to do it again. On the Burmatrail, it was painful but enjoyable as well, even if you couldn't see because of the blindfold. One thing I learnt from that was that you have to trust the rope because you couldn't see what you were doing or where you are going, or what you were going to bang into next. Another activity I enjoyed was the Group Work. During Group Work I got to know my Activity Group a lot and became friends with them. In Group Work I learnt to trust my group because you all have to have a part in putting someone over the wall or over the rope and it needed co-operation. I liked Abseiling as well because I've never done Abseiling before and with my fear of heights I was scared. I completed the Abseiling with help from Mrs Clark. She was really encouraging and Mr Elder too. At the end of Abseiling I really felt proud of myself. We then went to Canoeing. I've always liked Canoeing, especially going up a stream with a strong current. It was tough but challenging, I mostly enjoyed the free time, because you spent time with friends and dorm members and had lots of fun on the Waterslide, or Hydroslide, in the pool, or jumping off the bridge into the water hole, even though the water was freezing cold. The food was good. They really fed us well. They fed me more than I eat at home. At the end of each day we would watch a movie. The first night we watched 'Sister Act 2' and that was choice, but it would have been better if everyone had washed their feet before they entered the Chapel or before we watched the movie. After the movies we would go for swims at night then go to bed, but most of us would just talk. The second night we watched 'Cool Running', that night was a bit better because people washed their feet. Before then we had our swim. We also played games at the end of the day - which were soccer, volleyball and hockey. Those games were fun. Totara Springs had heaps of facilities and things to do. It would have been an even better camp if we'd had longer there.

Camp Quotes

- "Camp was really flash. We didn't have to wash dishes or cook tea."
- "Fourth Form Camp was really cool - the only problem was it was too short. It should have been longer."
- "Camp gave me the chance to know everyone in my Lake."
- "I really liked the group activities. Everyone was co-operating and we don't see that very often these days."
- "I liked the challenges we had to achieve."
- "The Confidence Course was awesome."
- "The teachers were well behaved and had a good sense of humour."
- "The worst thing was listening to people snoring all night."
- "I didn't like it when our group had to clean the toilets but other than that it was cool."
- "I never thought I'd be able to do all the activities but I was so proud of myself. I did everything."
- "With the Abseiling I knew I was in safe hands."
- "I liked Firth Tower. I didn't know so much history. It was the first time I was paying attention."
- "The Hydroslide was awesome. You can go down so fast in Boxers!"
- "Abseiling - was massive. You did about 6 shuffle steps then free fell."
- "Canoeing - I capsized twice, sank my paddle and overflowed my canoe."
- "Confidence Course - that was so hard. I didn't know being confident could be that hard - it's freaky."
- "The smell of feet at the videos was something else."
- "Even though I got home with sore muscles, camp was cool."
- "Camp was good. We didn't have to get up early in the morning and go for a run."
- "The teachers are like normal people - not grumpy. Except late at night - they stand by the bunkroom doors. It would be better if they'd go straight to bed instead of waiting for us to crash out."
- "Camp could be improved if everyone went to sleep."
- "The teachers really encouraged you in all events."

SADD Committee

The Forest View High School SADD (Students Against Driving Drunk) Committee, has had a very successful year. The Committee consists of 10 members, most of which are third formers, which is really good to see.

On 22 October, we held our SADD Awareness Day. This was a huge success. In the morning we had a "Mock-Crash". This was held outside of the school gates, before school. The Fire Brigade came and set up a smashed-up car and a motorbike for us. Inge Flinte and Kerryn Lang were our two actors. The Ambulance Service kindly put lots of make-up on them, as to make them look as though they were in a crash. There were a lot of people outside school, wondering what was going on. A lot of them thought that the accident was for real and were quite shocked. This was exactly the effect we had wanted to create.

After Inge and Kerryn were dropped off, the Police, Ambulance and Fire Brigade arrived. The Fire Brigade used the "Jaws of Life" to free Kerryn from the car. Unfortunately she was dead!! Inge was alright though and was taken back down to the Ambulance Station, along with Kerryn, to be cleaned up and dropped back off at school.

We somehow managed to make school start a bit late that day. The Fire Brigade were called out, just before they were coming up to the school, so that slowed everything down a bit.

At lunch-time, we had a sausage sizzle to raise money for the Committee. All together, we have raised about $100.

Next year, we hope to do even more SADD activities to raise some more money.

Polynesian Group

The Polynesian Group's first performance was held on Open Day, 2 September, undoubtedly a nerve-racking experience for all group members. They have had successful performances on Ohakuri Day, 19 September, the Variety Show, both on the same day!

They are looking forward to performing as one of the Special Guests appearing in the Tokoroa Primary Schools' Polynesian Festival on 23 October. This being the first performance out of the school environment and before an enormous audience.

Their next up and coming performance is at the 'Spring into Summer Festival' in Rosebery Street, Tokoroa Town Centre, 2 November, ending with a final performance at the FVHS Senior Prizegiving, 15 November.

Practices are on Monday - Period 3, 11.10am in the Auditorium. Sometimes 'urgent' practises are held at 7am before an up and coming performance. It seems to be the only time available for students to attend, and appears to have no clashes with timetables and extra curriculum activities.

The Polynesian Group has come a long way. It is a multi-cultural mix of Cook Island, Maori, Samoan, Niuean and European students who enjoy learning the cultural elements. Showing their skills in the area of 'Te Reo', 'Playing Instruments' and 'Dancing'. Students are always encouraged to share what they have learnt with their peers and others.

With the ever available support of parents, grandparents, tutors, staff members, the Polynesian Group is excelling and becoming confident in exposing their culture for everyone to see.

Sixth Form School Trip to Auckland

First Day

Finally the long awaited trip was here. Excitement was brewing as we jumped on the buses at school. We were off and raring to go. We arrived in Manukau City after a long three hour bus trip filled with singing, laughter and excited people. For some this was to be the start of an excellent shopping spree. From here some of us went to the zoo to visit some relatives, for others they were heading off to AIT, Auckland Institute of Technology. After the visits, we headed back to the camp for dinner. After that we headed to Waiwera Hot Springs for what was going to be the highlight of the trip. Once again the bus trip was to be filled with singing and sleeping.

Second Day

For those who went to AIT the first day, they did a swap and headed to the Zoo in hope that they may also be lucky and find relations. After this visit all students went their separate ways for their Career Visit. Many opportunities were available such as:

Police Station; Breweries; University Gym; Radio; Navy.

After these visits to meet for lunch, then again we were faced with a great task of trying to find our way around town, taking many different types of transport such as ferry, train, bus and feet. Along the way we visited Kelly Tarlton's. Each person was given a certain amount of money to get from the town centre, to the train station where we would hopefully all meet and board the train. Next stop Wiri. When finally returning to camp for dinner it was time to leave again and head to the movies. Just another fun-filled day.

Third Day

Another fun packed day with heaps instore including a little added bonus. While travelling on the bus we heard Peter Andre was going to be performing in the same place as we were having lunch, so as you could imagine the bus came alive with the sound of screaming females and jealous males, hissing and booing at the sound of Peter Andre. Before we had the chance to see Peter Andre we had our interest visits to pursue:

Rugby Hall of Fame; Surf Life Saving; Novatel - and for some lucky people they got to meet the Auckland Warriors at Ericsson Stadium. After this the rush was on, we had two hours free time in the city, another chance for some to shop, shop, shop. That night we headed to Paradise to do some ice skating. For those who could ice skate they had a good time. After ice-skating we headed to McDonald's for a late night snack then back to camp for a long last night.

Fourth Day

After the excitement of three days of fun, everyone was a bit slow getting out of bed, but we managed. Today was home time, although we had fun, everyone couldn't wait to return. After the BIG clean-up, everyone piled onto the buses and we headed for Rainbow's End. As you could imagine it was rides galore, with a hot dog or ice cream in between. The Roller Coaster being the favourite. We all got to try the new ride called the "Gold Rush" which was a lot of fun also. By about 1pm everyone was on the bus again and ready for the journey home. Everyone singing, laughing and even a few sleeping. Six form trip was a lot of fun, and the majority of us would love to do it again.

Thanks to the teachers for their hard work in making this trip a successful one, it was very much appreciated.

Smokefree Stage Challenge

In 1996 Forest View High School entered the Smokefree Stage Challenge for the first time.

The Stage Challenge is a secondary schools performing arts competition, the focus of which is to encourage youth to develop responsible attitudes to alcohol consumption, and to avoid tobacco and other drugs.

The students involved in our Stage Challenge all learned that it is possible to "get high on life" without the use of illegal substances. We all learned new skills in music production, choreography, staging, set design, costume design and to work together to achieve a goal.

One hundred and twenty students were involved in our production which was performed at the Aotea Centre in Auckland on Monday 17th June.

We were fortunate enough to win four out of nine awards. These were: initiative, costume design, set design and staging. Special thanks for all their time and effort, not to mention artistic skills, to Mrs Tina Ward (directing), Mrs Gerri Judkins (make-up and masks), Ms Kerianna Whatarau (choreography), Mr John Ten Velde (music and lighting), Mrs Brenda Baker and Mrs Michelle Henry (costumes), Mrs Ross (odd jobs).

Thank you also to all the staff who missed meals, family and valuable sleep to help us with the stage challenge, they were: Mr Burr, Mrs Clark, Miss Chemis, Mrs Sarich and Mrs Rakei.

The Stage Challenge was a great experience for everyone involved. Contacts have been made throughout New Zealand and lifelong friendships have been formed.

Card Club

1996 saw the beginning of a new club at FVHS!

Our card club group is small but enthusiastic.

We started the year learning Euchre - just to get the idea of having partners - and then moved on to find out all about Five Hundred. We're still not experts, but most Thursdays we meet to compete and learn.

With the onset of summer our ranks dwindle but the keen and faithful few have split into pairs to play two-handed Five Hundred. Our thanks go to Mrs Yukich and Mrs Gibbons for passing on their skills.

Next year we're aiming to play Bridge!

AFS Intercultural Programmes

THE WIDE HOUSE OF THE WORLD

Mission Statement

AFS New Zealand promotes peace and understanding among the people of the world through programmes of intercultural learning. Hāpe ai a AFS Aoteroa i te rangimarie me te orotau i waenga iwi o te ao mā te whakawhitiwhiti o ngā akonga o koei me étahi atu whenua. Dr Wayne Edwards, Professor of Education at Massey University states: "Making the decision to apply to become an AFS student is one of the most exciting and far-reaching choices a teenager might make and can certainly open the door of opportunity. New experiences abound: new family, school, culture, foods, friends, languages, beliefs. Global Education is a crucial part of education for the future in our complex but ever-shrinking world."

AFS began by exchanging just 51 students from 10 countries. Today this has grown to 10,000 global exchanges each year in 55 countries. 5000 New Zealand students have had the opportunity to become global citizens and 3000 students have been hosted. None of these students could have had this unique chance without two vital ingredients. The first is the Host families willing to open their homes and their hearts. The second is schools like Forest View. It is in schools that friends are made, language skills improved, academic lessons learned, sporting and cultural opportunities offered. Forest View has provided the opportunity to many students since the early 1980's. 60 students have gone away from the school and 53 students have been hosted.

When did AFS begin exchanging students? Why? The first exchange of students was nearly 50 years ago soon after World War II. The men who began the organisation were ambulance drivers who had volunteered in both World War I and II to provide a needed service in helping the wounded on both sides of the battlefield survive the conflict that tore apart their nations. Those ambulance drivers showed a real commitment to the AFS core values, including the worth and dignity of all people regardless of their nationality. After the war these men felt there had to be a better way. They saw the futility of war. Their vision was to build a more peaceful world. They believed the way to achieve this was by giving young people the opportunity to learn to know the people of another country and culture by living in a family, attending school and becoming part of the community they lived in. The AFS motto began then and still stands today:

"Walk together, Talk together,
All you peoples of the earth.
Then and only then,
Shall you have Peace."

Hola! My name is Ximena or X-Woman or Heman or whatever (I've got hundreds of names) and as you know I'm an exchange student from a really cool place called Chile. In Chile I live in a town called Rengo, which is one and a half hours to the south of Santiago, the capital.

To come to N.Z. on AFS has been one of the best things I have ever done. It has been a year full of surprises and new experiences. My first month here was a really hard time. Everything was new and different, but now everything has become normal to me. It took me a lot of time to get used to the idea of looking at the other side of the road before crossing the street. (In Chile we drive on the other side).

I'll never forget my first day at school. I was completely lost, because I didn't know anything about the school system and my English was sux, but slowly I started to get in to it.

I've enjoyed all my activities at FVHS, like Maori Club, swimming sports, six form trip, the ball, the school socials and to do walking under the rain for sport and rec. Also I've enjoyed other activities like a tramp for four days by the Whakatane River. We had to "climb" about seven hours per day. It was horrible, terrible. I can't find the right words to describe this nightmare, but after all, it was fun.

One thing I didn't like was when I was not allowed to give my blood for the blood doing because I was from South America. I couldn't understand why. It seemed that people must think Chile is a dirty and backward place, but it is not. It is just like N.Z. It made me angry. Also I was always asked stupid questions like "do you have TV?. Do you have computers? etc" People really don't understand my country.

Do you know what AFS means? It means Another Fat Student. Yes! I put a lot of weight just eating pies, fish and chips, burgers, etc. I love the NZ food! It is so yummy!

Now I can't believe it. My year has almost gone! I don't want to go home, but I do want to go. Do you understand? No! I don't understand either, I'm really confused. I just know I miss my mum! To be an AFS student is a really good experience. You learn heaps. Not just about another culture or language. You also learn heaps about yourself, so if you have the opportunity to join in it, just do it, because it is really FANTASTICO.

By now I want to say thanks to my family (The Barrys), to all my teachers, especially to Mrs Sommerville for all her patience with this "naughty girl", to Central Plateau and to all my new friends.

Muchas Gracias Por Este Grandioso Ano!

Thanks a lot for this great year!

Hasta La Vista! Volvere!

See you! I'll be back!

Servus ich heisse Tim Bailey und ich war in Osterriech auf AFS und bis jetzt ist es die beste Erlebnisse ich jemals hatte.

Hi my name is Tim Bailey and I was in Austria for one year as an AFS exchange student. It was the best experience I've ever had.

The opportunities offered to me were awesome. I went to Rome and Vienna with my class, with my family I went to Prague, Munich and Salzburg. I visited Nic Callaghan in Holland and at the end of my stay I had two and a half weeks in England. These are just the major trips, I also went to eight 'balls' and Skiing in the Austrian Alps which is amazing.

Because of my participation in AFS, I've created so many friends. I have friends in Austria, Australia, Hong Kong, Ecuador and heaps of other places. You make friends for the rest of your life as well, being involved with AFS.

I was living in the second largest city in Austria which meant the nightlife existed and you go and have a beer with your mates or after school go to a Café with your friends and have coffee and cake. The history of some of the places I went to was unreal, one would just stand in awe of places like the Vatican and others that are over 2,000 years old, it's just something we don't have here. Things I take for granted over here like cheap communication, I respect more now because I wasn't allowed to use the phone much because it was so expensive.

Along with learning a language, probably the most satisfying skill I learnt, there are many other skills that I learnt as well.

Adapting to a new family is a great challenge and my host family were lovely. They helped me with the language and gave more opportunities, I would not have had in New Zealand.

Finally, I'd like to thank everyone involved in AFS and the others who helped me get to Austria.

Tim Bailey

AFS continued

Hi! My name is Olov, and I am going to tell you about the differences in my home country (Sweden) and New Zealand, plus one or two other things.

There are a lot of differences between my country and New Zealand, so I'll just tell you about the main ones and a couple of totally irrelevant ones. To start off the temperature is slightly unevenly proportioned. For instance last winter my hometown had an average of -27°C. It so happens that Sweden's winter is the same time as New Zealand's summer. So when I landed in Auckland, 15 January 1996, I came from -27° to +27°C. Take my word for that, it was a bit of a shock. I really miss the cold, but, a very good part about not getting the cold is that you don't have to shovel the snow away in order to get to school.

Another rather large difference is school. Not only the rather insignificant difference that the school is ONE building and holds about 2000 students. But also the way you are expected to behave. In a Swedish school you would call your teacher by their first name. The teacher would level with you in a discussion. In short they would treat you as the young adult you are. You are also entitled to be away 25% of the school year. There are no uniforms and no detention. If you decide to misbehave you will be sent out of the classroom and it is all your own loss.

But here in New Zealand the schools are smaller and spread out which I find rather soothing for my taste. The major thing I don't exactly agree with is the way students have to behave towards teachers. Compared to Sweden it seems like teachers are like gods or the royal family. It seems like students must just serve and obey, which is a very different concept to that in Sweden. Teachers have more control over making students do whatever the teacher wants instead of making choices for themselves.

Here is a list of what I like and dislike about New Zealand.

LIKE:	DISLIKE:
NZ Weather	NZ sausages
NZ fastfood prizes	NZ school uniform
☒ Ozone free sky	NZ rain
NZ beer

But, I have also got a lot to thank New Zealand for. If I hadn't come to this country I would never have had the opportunity to go Jetboating, Bungyjumping, Gorging, Caving and a number of other things.

I would also like to take the opportunity to thank A.F.S. for getting me here, all the people who have given support during my year. Thanks also to: My first host family the Langs, for having me the time you did and my new host family the Thorntons, for the same reason. Also to Mr and Mrs Wolfe for taking me in when I was "homeless" and friends for being my friends. Of course thanks to mom and dad for paying!

Kurayoshi Exchange to Japan

We were delighted during this year to host a group of adults from Kurayoshi High School including the Deputy Principal. Although the visit was brief, a great deal was achieved in setting up an excellent opportunity for our Japanese students to take part in a cultural exchange which will enhance each participant's ability to be successful in this subject.

In 1994 and 1995 this exchange occurred on an informal basis. During 1996 this has now become a formal agreement between Kurayoshi, Forest View and Tokoroa High Schools.

The exchange will begin in June 1997 and will be for three weeks. Five or six students will be home hosted and attend Kurayoshi. There will be an expectation that these students will be intending to continue with Japanese as a subject in the year following their exchange.

Kurayoshi students will return with this group and be hosted here and attend the school of their host family.

If the experience had by the students who went in 1995 is any example, this opportunity will be a great one.

R. Sommerville

Hi! My name is Claudia. I am an AFS - exchange student from Germany. The first three months of my stay here in New Zealand are gone and I can't believe it. It's a worry that time is passing so quickly. Sometimes I think that I don't have enough time to do and see things I want to achieve. It hasn't been easy adjusting to a new lifestyle but everything is coming right now. I found some friends, had quite choice holidays, went on a tramp in the bush, had heaps of fun up till now (will continue) and my host family is fantastic. I feel like a part of them. They are always there to support me. My mum is Maori and I am living in a huge family compared to home. When I realised that I have about 54 cousins on my host 'Mum's' side, I thought "Wow!" That's absolutely amazing!"

I find Maori Culture pretty interesting and enjoy learning it. For me it is something abnormal but, at the same time exceptional. I love the 'Haka' and wish I could one day perform with the Maori Culture Group. A really special event was when I went with my host mum to a 'Tangi'. I have never seen a dead person before. The Maori way of having a funeral is really different compared to back home. First I was a little bit frightened. But now, when I think about it I am not scared any more.

School ... ah ... the school system is pretty different to Germany. Usually I have 12 various subjects and not just five. We don't wear school uniform, so I can't believe that I am wearing this strange outfit just like everyone else. My school at home starts about 7.55am, so my day begins about 6.15am every morning and not at 7.45am. Another thing is sport at school. The school offers all sorts of sports for their spare time. I think they are well organised. In Germany it's very common to do sports in clubs, separate from school. Before, I didn't know that the 'Ball' could be a big sensation! There is one more thing which I want to say: I've learnt to love my home. When I left Germany I was fed up with everything, but now I know what I have at home, how nice it can be.

Thanks Mama, thanks a lot Papa! Thanks for giving me the opportunity of being here, to have a great time and do all this. Thank you! Now I have eight and a half months more left, there is heaps to do. I am looking forward to the summer holidays, my South Island trip and to Bungyjumping! The rest of my stay, I want to make heaps of friends - AFS and New Zealand friends. Hey, everybody who gets the opportunity to go on AFS, just do it! Go for it! AFS is like a huge family. It makes the world smaller. Touch it! I would like to say "Thank You" for everything up till now but I am not gone yet! Thanks! See ya!

Shakespeare Festival

The Forest View entry to the Shakespeare Festival this year tested a largely inexperienced cast and a new director. The lack of seniors and males meant that the cast was largely drawn from the third and fourth form, this did mean that new opportunities existed for actors to make their mark.

With rehearsals interrupted by the end of term one, the first few weeks of term two passed by in a haze of repeated instructions from Mr Arthur and his "Tyrant" (oops, assistant) Amanda birnie. There were constant worries about the lines. Had they been learnt? What was really meant by this funny style of English? Could you hear them over Hayden's acting?

Added to this were the complaints about the costumes. Janine Mitchell's constant worry about was her gown too long? And then there was the makeup. It arrived, it disappeared and only with the arrival of Mrs Judkins did it stay on.

However on the day the performance went well. The Merchant of Venice in modern dress passed off with very few hitches, even Jessica and Lisa getting their cell phones to work. Although we did not go further, the entire process developed some new talent and gave experience to all who took part.

FVHS Ball

The night was finally upon us, girls glamorous and guys suave after a day of hectic preparation.

The butterflies disappeared with the help of magic substances supplied at the pre-balls. Varieties of transport were seen ranging from Limo's, Hot Rods and Mummy and Daddy express.

The theme this year was 'Atlantis', the city under the sea. As people filed through the door they struggled to walk in a straight line (Girls had an excuse 'high heels', guys???). All scrubbed up quite nicely, that they were hardly recognisable.

The dance floor was crowded most of the night with 'Chicago Maid' the chosen band for the night's entertainment with an appearance from the "BOYS" singing a few songs as we eagerly awaited the main part of the night the 'FEED'.

The night continued on with more dancing and photos, not to mention the uncontrollable actions of certain people which kept us entertained and rather shocked.

As time went on Belle and Beau of the Ball were announced, Karin Griffin and Brandon Edgar gaining the honour and the best couple went to myself and 'partner' (by the way he does have a name).

As it got closer to midnight people became restless and anxious to go (I wonder why). However a very successful night, many thanks to Mrs Gibbons, the ball committee and those who set up and cleaned up, also to Neville Burgess for the hospitality he provided to all after the Ball.

Debating

This year the honour of Forest View debating was left in the hands of a young but spirited team of Form 3 boys. Although their experience had been limited prior to this year, the team was enthusiastic. Having corralled and browbeaten the coach (also new to the school), they departed by parental cars to negate the proposition "That Sexist Advertising is Acceptable" against John Paul College in Rotorua.

The debate did our novices proud with all three speakers displaying poise and wit. But despite the brevity of John's wit, the Churchillian Hyperbole displayed by Colin and the pointed rebuttal offered by Aidan, they lost.

Having hibernated for term 3, the team await some local friendlies in December and the renewed competition of 1997 with anticipation and experience.

Chess Club

Throughout the school year on Wednesday lunchtime students meet to play chess in C-16 (Mr Judkins' room). This club has grown every year since it first started in 1993 and is open to all students who want to learn or play. 1996 saw the start of an evening chess group, Monday 7-9pm with Forest View students, adults, and keen intermediate age children.

This year the annual school tournament began in the second week of Term 4. Last year it was won by Richard Pocock for the third time in a row. Second place went to Dan Judkins, with Graeme Edgeler third and Grant Patterson fourth. The results of this year's tournament will not be finalised before the magazine deadline but sixteen players are playing. After the first round there were six students with wins: Richard Pocock, Olov Eriksson, Dan Judkins, Peter Lorenzen, Nathaniel Fairweather and Nathan Mackie. Richard Pocock is a very strong favourite to win as he has won every year since third form. He is currently rated 24th in New Zealand Chess Federation junior section.

Chess club teaches basic skills and provides the opportunity to challenge players of varying strength. Students soon find out that they will lose to a player who is more experienced in the fine art of strategy and tactics. Practice helps and playing stronger players pays off. Several students have become much better players as the school year has progressed as wanting to win is a strong motivation. Give chess a go and feel the thrill of a checkmate!

FIRST XV

The 1996 season began with a few improvements over recent years by getting a total facelift with new coaching and management staff, as well as gaining major sponsorship from Meszaros Motors (playing gear), Tokoroa Health and Fitness (jackets), PEL (gear bags) and Miles Harnett Auto Electrical and the school council (dress uniform).

As well as the new look the team also travelled to the Australian Gold Coast to play in the Jeff Mills Gold Coast Rugby Carnival, and with the help of Mr Whatarau prepared a haka to perform in Australia and for the remaining competition games.

The pre-season training began in February and the first of four pre-season games in March. We won three out of four pre-season games, and then played our three qualifying games to decide which division we would play in. We proved to be competitive in these games but a narrow loss to Hillcrest put us in Division II. We finished 5th of 10 teams in this division, missing out on a semi-final place by only one point.

An indication of our team's improvement was that three players Isaac Boss, Nathan Coombe and Tama Allan won selection for Waikato Secondary Schools.

In total the 1st XV played 19 games (excluding Australia) of which we won 12. The season ended on a high note with a non-competition victory over Te Awamutu College 2nd XV 31-26.

Overall, the 1996 season was a great success with the team members, coaches and management making many friends - it will be a year to remember for all of us.

AUSTRALIAN TRIP

The decision to go to Australia was made late last year at a meeting for the proposed 1st XV players.

The fundraising started in the Christmas holidays with cutting firewood and stacking hay. By the end of the holidays we had raised around $5000, but there was a long way to go before reaching our goal of $32,000. Fundraising carried on until the end of May and the remaining amount still needed was made up by the players. Thursday 27th June finally came and we met outside the school at 5am with Mr Mill checking everyone off before we jumped on the bus to start our long journey. Six hours later we finally arrived at Brisbane Airport. The sudden temperature rise changing from 5°C to 24°C was something no one complained about. Having lunch in Brisbane before travelling to Surfers Paradise gave us time to adjust to the amount of local talent around, and this was a big change that no complained about either (coming from a small town like Tokoroa).

Checking in at the hotel wasn't a problem with the boys being put into pairs and given a room key. After putting our bags into our rooms, we were quick to explore the rest of the hotel checking out all the luxuries - the spa, sauna and tennis court and then hitting the beach before a light training run. Then it was finally time to hit the town with the guys breaking up in little groups to go and explore the places to eat and again I think they were more interested in the local talent. After a long day of walking around it was finally time to head back to the hotel for bed. Breakfast the next day was an eye-opener with having a big smorgasbord ranging from nutra grain to the crispy bacon and hash browns. After spending enough time in the breakfast room to take full advantage of all the food, it was time for our morning meeting in Mr Mill's room where we were given our lunch money, the time to be back for training and had our morning court session. After the meeting the day was ours, having training runs around 3.30pm every day we weren't playing and haka practice at 5pm. Then we had time to have a sauna and shower before meeting in Mr Mill's room again where we were given our money for dinner, curfew time and the time we would have breakfast and our morning meeting the next day. Then it was time to hit the town again. Apart from the days we were playing rugby or going to the theme parks, this was the way we spent our time on most days. In the time we were over in Australia we visited three theme parks Sea World, Dream World and Wet and Wild. Of course, with all the fun we weren't to forget that we came over to play rugby. We were entered in the Jeff Mills Gold Coast Schools Rugby Carnival which was held at Carrara Sporting Complex (home of the Gold Coast Chargers) and included over 50 teams from all over the world. It was a great experience for the boys with playing a totally different style of rugby, with games only lasting 15 minutes each way and some of the rules being quite different.

We played a total of five games, won only two and lost narrowly in the other three. Tala Hasini was named player of the team for the tournament and received a JMGCBCRC Barbarians rugby jersey. Many of the guys also made new friends with the other rugby teams staying in the hotel, but by far the favourites were the Irish whose company we enjoyed the best. After saying our goodbyes on the 7th of July to the hotel staff and the Irish, we found out these were unnecessary due to the fact that we couldn't fly back to New Zealand because all the airports were closed caused by the ash from Mt Ruapehu. Mixed feelings were shared over this incident but with the majority of boys being happy they could stay another night.

The following day we farewelled the Irish and at around 6pm we left Surfers, on what was going to be a long trip home. We arrived at Brisbane Airport at about 7.30, the earliest flight home (to Auckland) was at 2.00 in the morning. Spending the night at the airport waiting for the flight seemed like an eternity with most shops closed and not much to do. Finally we boarded the plane at around 1.30 having to wait until 3 o'clock before the plane finally took off.

Back in Auckland was a big changeover again with the cold temperature. We finally arrived back in Tokoroa which was a big shock after living the good life for nearly two weeks. The trip was finally over, even though many of us still wished we were back in Surfers. This will be one of the only trips overseas many of us will have with a rugby team and it was a great experience for everyone and the memories will certainly last for all of us.

The trip was a great success and was enjoyed by everyone including the parents, management, coaches, supporters and especially the boys, and could hopefully be a beginning of other trips overseas.

UNDER 15 WHITE

The under 15 White rugby team was made up of under 16 members and others from the under 15 trials and those who wanted to play rugby.

After chopping and changing, we eventually pieced together a team. In our two pre-season games against Cambridge and Putaruru we played well, winning both games.

We started the competition in a game we wish to forget. We played the much beefed up Cambridge team we had won against the week before. The only difference between the two teams was that we didn't have an established kicker. They won by 3 points. That was our motivation for the next few games. We played well winning them all. We came to play Mangakino in a hard fought game, just losing by a few points. We played well after that continuing our charging forward and graceful (sometimes) back play. When we got our rhythm going there were few teams that could stop us.

Throughout the season we played with pride and a determination, everyone enjoying their time on the rugby field. We were very thankful towards our coach Mr Harpur who gave us some gruelling trainings. In the end we were probably better for it. We continue with high spirits looking forward to our breakup later in the year.

GIRLS RUGBY

Take 20 excited girls, some borrowed uniforms, an enthusiastic parent, an inexperienced manager, and a coach more wed to jockstraps than bra straps and you have the birth of Girls Rugby at FVHS. First we rated ourselves a chance against our boys Under 50Kg team and it was on home ground that our first (and only!) try was scored.

Te Awamutu proved to be a daunting opposition, but perhaps we played better than we thought as they did not make it to the return match.

Hillcrest and Cambridge were more on our level and we threw ourselves into the matches, mud and all. If we couldn't win, we were at least going to get good complexions out of it!

Our thanks go to Mr Morunga for helping to get the team started, Mrs Yukich for her organisation and Mr MacDonald for showing great patience during the games and coaching sessions.

Our aim for next year is to cross the try line more often!

A Team

This season was a start of new beginnings for the team. 'Out with the old and in with the new' was the way we started the 1996 netball season. We farewelled our coach and also past players but we gained eager players, keen to get out on the court. We also gained Denise Lee, our new coach, who was willing to pass on her knowledge and experience to us.

We started the season well (okay, just opening day) and ended the season on a high note. The highlight for the season was getting revenge on Taradale and thrashing them, usually a rarity for Forest View. We continued the tradition of being psyched out by Tokoroa High School, but we'll get them! Trainings were fun, we sometimes beat the B's even if we did have to use Mrs Sommerville and Denise.

Alana 'Mouth' Te Whaiti - Captain.

Definitely the mouth of the team. An excellent feeder of the ball and maybe her mouth. The oldest and one of the best mid-court players around, will be missed next year.

Jodie 'The Car Ran Out of Petrol'

Truman-Munroe - Vice Captain. A very versatile player, who could give Michael Jordan a good run when it comes to elevation. Always looking for an intercept. Celia 'New But Old' Cowley - Stolen from the B's and we never looked back once. A real asset for the A's, an accurate shooter and really reliable.

Shenell 'I Slept In (Again)' Potoru - Miss Steady. 100% commitment, probably the fittest player in the team, who sometimes scared us when she was late. A good centre and primo on defence.

Rona 'I'll be at Physio' Morunga - Always trying even when she had stuffed her ankles at training. Showed us what rolling was all about. Always doing her best for the team.

Eboni 'Brad's Playing Rugby' Frear - One of our newcomers, proved to be a real asset to the team, especially when she played GK in the secondary schools' competition. Showed a lot of commitment.

Maria 'Miss Petite' Potoru - Focuses a lot on the game, always happy and does her best. Excellent player on defence even if the ball does pass through her fingertips. Keen to learn new skills, always motivated.

Rhea 'Reflex Woman' Hyde - Also one of our newest players, AWESOME defensive player and showed her stuff on court. A player with choice reflexes, always there ready to gain the next pass or intercept.

Girls who made representatives team:

Eboni Fear - Tokoroa Under 19 Team

Maria Potoru - Midland Under 17 Team

Rhea Hyde

Rona Morunga

Jodie Truman-Munroe - Midland Under 19 Team

Shenell Potoru

A special thanks to Wena Henry and Melissa Cox for always filling in for us when we needed you (which was a lot!).

●R. Hyde ●R. Morunga ●S. Potoru ●M. Potoru ●E Frear.

Although our losses outweighed our wins, the girls had a specially good season. Many thanks to our many supporters who kept us going when the going got tough. To Denise Lee, a special thank you for your great coaching tips, also to Mrs Sommerville and Mrs Williamson for the great support provided throughout the season.

FVHS B

The 1996 netball season was successful for our team. In the Tokoroa Netball Association rounds of competition we won the B Grade and were runners-up in the A Reserve Grade.

We kept up our proud tradition of winning against Taradale B by a very large margin. We had a lot of team spirit for a young team, which shows promise for the future. Mrs Sommerville was very proud of our NEAT TEAM and encouraged us right throughout the season, as well as Mrs Williamson.

We had a lot of successful players in the B team who had made it into Representative teams this year. Wena Henry into the Midland Netball Union Under 17 team. Melissa Dawson, the Tokoroa Netball Association Under 19 team. Theresa Kahui, Melissa Cox, Amor Rakei and Hayley Devon all made it into the Tokoroa Netball Association Under 17 team. Congratulations to all our team mates!

Our young successful player Wena Henry was chosen as one of the 'Top Ten Netball Players' at the North Island Under 17 Championship tournament in Wanganui. Well done!

Our team had a few difficulties this season with the loss of players. We lost a great asset to the team, Celia Cowley, promoted to the A team. She played well and deserved her selection to play in the A team.

We would like to say a BIG thank you to Mrs Sommerville, Mrs Williamson and Denise Lee. Thanks a lot for teaching new skills and for all your encouragement. Also thanks to Mrs Kahui.

Last but not least our B Team profile:

Karin (Hoppy) Griffin - (Captain). Belle of the 'Ball' on the netball court. Willing to play wherever no-one else would go. Great defence and a very supportive Captain.

Theresa (Stuff This) Kahui - Miss Energetic, able to work both ends of the court and always playing her best. Speedy to each end of the court and though she is short, she still gets the intercepts.

Wena (Miss Thang) Henry - Player with great potential and always reliable. Silent but violent to the opposition. She's short but boy can she jump! Good understanding and reader of the game. Always looking for the extra pass.

Melissa (It's My Shoes) Cox - A 99.9% goal average. A bit clumsy (don't blame your shoes Melissa!). A cheerful face on court and has shown some awesome jump shots. A great asset to the goal circle.

Amor (Feet Watcher) Rakei - Improved her game throughout the season and managed to watch the ball and not her feet. Good elevation and very speedy. An aggressive player to the opposition and got many intercepts.

Melissa (Who) Dawson - WHEN AVAILABLE, she was very good on defence.

Hayley (B.Ball) Devon - Very versatile player with a basketball style. Good to see her at games and trainings.

Rowena (Mosquito Bites) Whare - Yeah right!! Is it a bird? Is it a plane? NO its Rowena on defence. A great asset in the defence and the attack. A very determined player who gave it all her best.

Wena (Any Parties Tonight?) Hale - She was great on defence, but then she left us. A good motivator even if she did throw the ball away a few times. Sad to see you move on, but good luck for the future.

3A TEAM

Getting selected to play for FVHS 3A netball team gave us a neat start to our netball season this year. Competition to get in the team was tough. It was an advantage that most of us had played together in rep teams during our intermediate days.

Under the coaching of Ms Hein, hard training and fitness testing had the 3A team hyped up and ready for yet another year of netball. The local competition began with some of us playing against senior teams. Unfazed by this, we won a few, and lost a few, and eventually came runners-up in our grade, right behind FVHS Royal team. The 3A Forest View Team of 1996:

Emily Te Tomo – A very dedicated and improved player of the year. Emily was capable of playing any position that was given to her from GS to C or GD to WA.

Jenna Ackerman – A very aggressive and energetic player throughout the season. Jenna suffered a few leg injuries but was quick to recover to play her favourite position – CENTRE.

Jessica Woodley – A very big help through the mid-court as well as feeding the ball into the circle. Jessica was a very quiet but a very fast player and was always there when we needed her!!

Kelly Rakei – Kelly was a very organised and co-operative player with her main position GA. She had great skills reading the ball and knew her part of the court even with her eyes closed.

Rachel Bennion – (Captain). Last but not least myself. A very dedicated Captain as well as an advisor. Mostly playing GD alongside Rana Motu who played GK. This season was the time I couldn't muck around but give it my best and everything I had learned, for my team as well as myself.

Thank you to all the supporters, parents and friends for cheering us on. Being there whenever you could. A very big thank you to Ms Hein who had put up with our attitude when it was one of our off-days and also never giving up on us. No words can explain how much appreciation we have for you and all the time you were there for us. Once again thank you everybody, as well as the team.

Angel Haa and Megan Underdown share the responsibilities of being the captain of our team. We started the season well and enjoyed our games. Towards the end of the season we were not as successful. Next year many of us would like to have more regular practises and play more serious netball. We have good players in our team and know that we can enjoy our games.

Cross Country

Maybe it was the Olympic spirit. Maybe it was steroids. In either case something got into our athletes in 1996, and it seems to me that we have had an exceptional sporting year.

No weather worries for Swimming sports this year thanks to the new indoor pool. And with the new lengths, every race winner automatically set a record. But make no mistake, fast is fast whatever the distance, like Jamie Temata and his 14.85 secs for 25 metres. Other records included Least Tactful Amplified Announcement By A Head Boy. Congratulations to the overall winners. Y. Flinte and R. Motu in the juniors and I. Flinte and A. Inman in the seniors. Following the maxim that two heads are better than one, both Mrs Clark and Mrs Stokes got to give the orders in Phys Ed this year. It is thus a testimony to patience and perseverance that Assistant Teacher van der Boom and Dogsbody Elder managed to do things like mark the new athletics track so accurately. Just in time too, because it was all go on the day. Plenty of willing participation was punctuated by some pulsating personal performances (excuse my "P"ing all over the page). To cap it off, Mr Whatarau put to rest the myth that teachers have eyes in the back of their head, by allowing himself to be overtaken in the final yards of the relay. M. Newton, R. Everest, A. Rakei, I. Boss, E. Frear and B. Brunton took out student honours on the day.

And so to the Cross Country, with far more clear cut results than the election. Despite repeated calls on the Civil Defence radios by some anonymous teacher, the Enterprise did not beam them up. The weather was not the best but attitudes were good making it another victory for "having a go" and congratulations must go to all who took part as well as the winners, E. Boss, D. Moore, A. Burnett, I. Boss, E. Frear and G. Sarich had both the attitude and the leg speed to earn them victory in their respective races.

Ah well, just the memory of all that exertion has worn me out so I'm off for a big of R and R.

Ka Kite.

Rugby League

1996 was the first season which Forest View has fielded a First XIII rugby league team which played in the Waikato secondary schools' competition.

The team was a mixture of rugby union, league players, as well as four who had never played rugby league in their life. We went into our first game not knowing what to expect, but a great effort from the guys saw our first three games won by 50 points.

As the season progressed the team changed from a group of rookies to an experienced, well disciplined team which from the sideline looked like they had played together their entire life.

We had an excellent season and finished up second in the competition which entitled us to represent the Waikato playing a Far North college.

Consistent effort from Brandon Edgar, Taj McCaskill, Kuru Kuru, Karl Temata and Tama Allan was rewarded with positions in the Waikato secondary school's rugby league team.

We all enjoyed the season and there is a strong base for the 1997 team. Special thanks to George Tahapehi for his excellent coaching and guidance, as well as Vaughan Temata for his management and organising us every Wednesday night.

RUGBY LEAGUE PROFILE:

Fullback - Pioi 'Freshie' Pio: Pio had a marvellous season, he was also a fearless runner and headstrong tackler.

Wing - Johnny 'Bone Crusher' Mason: One of the fastest, cunning sidesteppers on the field (loves to score tries in the dead ball area).

Wing - Laurence 'Soccer Player' Underdown: His rugby league highlight of the year was when he stormed off the opposition to score a 90-metre try.

Centre - Karl 'The Brain' Temata: His knowledge of the game still wonders most players. His defence was his strongest point, tackling anything that got in his way.

Centre - David 'King Ropati' Henry: His muscular frame stood 5'8" off the ground, making things easy for him to run. A very hard man to tackle.

Stand-off - Taj 'Wait, No 48 and 49 hair is out of place' McCaskill: His agility and strength made it easy for him to hit the gaps to set play up 40 metres down field.

Halfback - Lance 'The Pitbull as big as a Poodle' Bonnar: Lance was an aggressive player, also probably one who needs to wash his mouth out with soap.

Prop - Neville 'Hot Stepper' Burgess:

Neville was the donkey of the team. His work rate was 110% effort, tackling and attack. The only prop we've seen that could side-step as good as Johnny.

Hooker - Brandon 'Whiteboy' Edgar:

Brandon's fierce tackling earned the respect of team-mates, and built a reputation as the best tackler in the Waikato.

Second Rower - Jamie 'Big Balls' Temata:

Jamie was a hard runner, tackler. He was just a class act.

Second Rower - Uatoa 'The Train' Paito:

One of the best attackers on the team, running hard like a locomotive.

Second Rower - Hamish 'Triple Changer' Allan:

Following big brothers footsteps. He was a versatile player in our team. Playing in every position except prop. Got the respect of all the boys.

Loose Forward - Tama 'Hungus' Allan:

His aggressive run-ups inspired the team. His great leadership and try-scoring pulled our team out of many sticky situations.

THE IMPACT PLAYERS

Second Rower - Raymond 'Johnny

Lomax' De Vries: Came on as a strong impact player, running hard, tackling hard, bit of a loose head.

Wing - Guy 'Don't Dirty My Jersey'

Winikerei: Also a strong impact player, cunning side-step with strong running - a good combination.

Halfback - Adam 'Stacey Jones' Smith:

Small, strong, brilliant - a real Stacey Jones in the making.

Stand-off - Deveraux 'Black Man'

Tapsell: Thoughtful player, setting up Tama and Uatoa for many hits, on them that is.

Soccer

SOCCER 1ST XI

As winter braced Tokoroa in late February, brave and gallant individuals, that were the 1st XI boys' soccer side, entered into spirited competition with teams from Hamilton, Cambridge and Matamata. Cold, early mornings did not stop us from having one of the best seasons ever. A few new additions to this year's line-up maintained the flair and ability shown in past years.

Trent "The Hitman" Maulder

Trent always had an uncanny way of finding and marking the smallest opposition player on the field, and then mortally wounding him halfway through a game. For his first year, Trent was outstanding in his position and was shown to be pillar of defence under all pressure throughout the season. Freaks in the other team were always accurately picked out and made fun of accordingly.

Daniel "Is it a bird? Is it a plane?" Edgeler

Although half conscious for 90 percent of every game, from having collided with an opposition striker, Dan proved himself to be one of the best goalies FVHS has ever had. An expert at defensive free kicks and penalties, and all round goalkeeping, Dan was one of the star players of the year.

Niki "No, I'm not passing the ball" Tameha.

Apparently kicked a soccer ball, but I'm not too sure.

Evan "Cantona" Dickinson.

Evan could often be seen juggling chainsaws and knives while weaving through opposition defenders to score a magnificent 'one end to the other' goal. A true class act.

Chris "What ever" Hickford.

While most of Chris' skill lay in collecting the balls during shooting practise, his antics and assuming defence gave us something to laugh at. Very good at defending balls in the air.

Lloyd "The Phantom" Farr.

Outstanding in all aspects of the game. Lloyd proved himself to be an excellent leader and example to the team, both in skill and ability. Amazing free kicking, corners and penalties made Lloyd undoubtedly the best attacking mid-fielder in the team. Being tall, he always managed to get his head to the ball.

Jonathan "It's all about commitment" Brookes.

Jonathan started his soccer season well. Due to contradicting attitudes and conflicting agendas, Jonathan's professional outlook towards life forced him to pursue other extra-curricular activities outside the realm of soccer to enable him to become a more fully rounded, respectable, successful person, both spiritually and physically.

Gareth "Stick to the game" Williams.

A player with a lot of talent and a big future. Gareth always got himself out of sticky situations to stick it to the opposition by sticking the ball between the stick-like goal sticks.

Richard "I'm not what my last name suggests I am" Pocock.

A nuggety little player with great skill and flair. An excellent roaming winger with pin point through balls.

Chris "Snowball" Borland

Great ball skills on and off the field. Known for putting his hands over his eyes in the wall. One of the team's many characters.

Kurt "That guy looked at me funny" Williams.

Kurt's game plan forced him to put more emphasis on not actually getting the ball in the goal, but bullying the other team into submission. When he did mount an enthralling attack, it was usually on an opposition player.

Olov "F@*king ref, f#@, f*#k...." Eriksson.

Olov had only two hitches in his arsenal of amazing goal kicks, penalties and defensive ability; the ref and the other team. For these factors alone, Olov saw red for most of the year, red cards that is.

Roger "Hollywood" Hollins

With a flair to hold up a game with entertaining ball skills and individual brilliance, he was one of the stars in a team of many. I heard he turned down a position in the Manchester United team to finish the season for FVHS.

Lucas "Pass the ball to me, I want a goal" Sikking.

An excellent defensive player. Had absolute control in defence, no matter what the situation as. And yes Lucas, that one goal was rather spectacular. Definite leadership material.

Alec "My last name doesn't refer to my height, so what does it refer to? Stretch.

For a player who played in the last four or so games, he showed excellent skill and ability to score an average of 1.5 goals a game. A great future ahead of him.

Maori guy with funny hair cut.

He turned up for practice a few times, but didn't actually play a game. Totally confused about his whereabouts and whereabouts and where he gets his hair cut.

Gregg "GGGGGGG" Bisley.

Didn't turn up to trainings, didn't pay fees, didn't provide transport, didn't have anything to do with soccer at all, but his name was put to good use throughout the season.

Special thanks must go to Scott "Lurch" Downs for coaching this enthusiastic, promising group of characters and forcing us to develop the untapped skill and potential that we all had, even though those fitness trainings were a bit harsh. And to Mike "I still have the shortest shorts" Van der boom who we hardly saw all year, but organised the games, venues, strips, equipment, transport and some practices with his busy schedule. Also many thanks to all the keen people who provided transport on those cold mornings.

Australopithecus Afarensis

1ST XI GIRLS

This season was a season of mixed fortunes for the team.

We commenced the season with several new players who settled well to the team rhythm as the season progressed.

Once again we succeeded in beating Taradale High School on our school exchange. We had a mixed season in our Waikato Premier division, winning some very good games, but also losing some we should have easily won.

We would like to thank Mr Newton and Mrs Wiles for their support and encouragement throughout the season and also special thanks to all the parents and family who supported our team by coming to watch us play.

SECOND XI GIRLS

Our team started off quite well, considering most of us had not played soccer before. After about 3 games we lost two players to the 1st XI team, but we still were able to play some very impressive games.

Our team played to the best of its abilities. Everyone giving their all and playing hard but fair, even though other teams did not. We made sure that we enjoyed ourselves, and had a very enjoyable season. Even though certain referees were unable to appreciate our pure talent.

Our team would like to thank our Coach Karen Lichtwark for all the time and effort she put into our team. We wish her all the best at university next year.

Thanks goes to Joan Lichtwark for taking on the role of manager. We would also like to thank everyone who came to watch us, both at home and at away games. Thanks to all those who helped out with transport. Our most cultural experience was against Waikato Dio. We may have lost that game but we showed them when they came to play us in Tokoroa, wasting them the second time around.

We even showed a certain referee that girls can actually kick corner kicks from the corner, not right next to that goal! Congratulations to Katie who was the best goal scorer of the season, and Teresa the most entertaining player of our team.

Jo: "Caught in the act" Aerts
Talia: "Full speed ahead" Hope
Chantelle: "Time is of the essence" Litten
Maria: "Prefer cut lunch" Baker
Hayley: "Silence is golden" Smith
Janine: "Practice makes perfect" Roscoe
Teresa: "The Mus" Marshall
Andrea: "Keep the ball up that end" McDonald
Renee: "Shut up" Henry
Connie: "Power Kick" Morriss
Kerriane: "Bobbie Bee Legs" Degan
Katie: "I'll take you on" Willoughby
Rachel: "A young 'un with future" Hope
Kerri: "What's soccer practice" Dwane

Hockey

GIRLS 1ST XI

COACH

Leslie "Be nice to each other" Hollis. Provided us with support and encouragement throughout the season.

RIGHT BACK

Maria "I'm gonna score a goal this week" Clay

Her defensive strategies often proved worthwhile along with some strong attacking plays.

LEFT BACK

Jessica "I'm bored - will you swap with me" Haugh.

Jessica often kept our goalie company with some spirited play aiding in our defence.

LEFT HALF

Emma "Get it out!!!" Jones

Her encouragement and support was much appreciated along with her ever improving skills.

RIGHT HALF

Lisa "IMS Gymnast" Edgar.

Playing in conjunction with her wing and inner, she proved valuable playing in the half line.

CENTRE FORWARD

Alice "I've got more goals than you Jules" Fearn.

Top goal-scorer for the season, Alice was a valuable asset to the team.

CENTRE HALF

Juliette "But who set them up Alice? - I did" Cuttriss.

Often holding onto the ball longer than others would like, she was invaluable on attack and defence.

LEFT WING

Wilmington "Post Hugger" Deutz-Ebeling.

Always in position, she often capped offset plays right on the goal post.

LEFT INNER

Stacey "Manu, Rang, Hone, Hori" Prole.

Being the youngest didn't stop her making herself known to the team and will be a worthy player in years to come.

RIGHT INNER

Johanneke "Marj Nielson" Deutz-Ebeling.

Providing us with the school gossip was not

her only useful skill and will certainly be needed next year.

RIGHT WING

Katrina "Hairy Legs" Hudson.

Her speed on the wing was very useful often being sent to chase after long, fast balls.

GOALIE

Nicole "Ref Spader" Andrews.

Being bored is nothing new to Nicole, but when she had the chance was a menacing threat to the other team.

UTILITY

Emma "Jack of all trades" Sheldrake.

Playing almost every position, Emma's skills improved markedly and will be useful in the future.

The 1st XI Girls' Hockey Team has been exceptionally brilliant this year winning all but two games in which we drew to the same team twice.

Talent in the forward line often capitalised the hard work done by the halves and some startling plays from the backs providing tremendous defence meant more play in the other team's half giving us ample scoring opportunities.

Our annual sports exchange with Taradale High School unfortunately provided us with a narrow loss partially (totally!) due to ash fall from Mt Ruapehu's eruption disrupting our game plan.

Thanks must go to our coach Ms Hollis and referee Mr Arthur for travelling to Rotorua each week with us.

2ND XI GIRLS HOCKEY

Angela 'Hitman' Nield. - Moulded her team of misfits into awesome goal scoring, attacking, defensive enthusiastic losers. Natasha 'Speedy' Mason. - Tasha was our team's adviser, always giving support. Her legs sometimes had trouble keeping up with her mouth. An excellent season.

Jennifer 'Muff' Price. - She had incredible faith in her goal scoring abilities (Ha!). Jen was always ready to receive the ball and had an awesome first season.

Inge 'Transformer' Flinte. - Our last line of defence (who saved our hide all the time). She pulled off some amazing stops. Definitely.

Vanessa "You go up" Franklin. - Had an excellent year as back and had an awesome trip see you next fall. (He he he!).

Donelle 'I scored' Litten. - Donelle began the trend in goal scoring for our team. She was very enthusiastic and never failed to let us know when she made a boo-boo from her constant screaming.

Tammy 'I'm gonna get Rebecca' Thornton. - The makings of a great player and if she focused more on the game rather than trying to kill Rebecca she would be in the NZ team (maybe!).

Rebecca 'Air' Hudson. - A brilliant hitter if she managed to keep the ball on the ground. Always running (perhaps to get Rambo). Lee 'Quarterback' Fitzpatrick. - A great little half and stunt woman, perhaps she's more suited to football!

Maria 'Madame Butterfly' Honey. - She was as aggressive as a butterfly but she made up for it with her incredible ball skills.

Angela 'Flicks' Swale. - Her uncanny knack to flick the ball out to the wing was great, a strong player who will do well in the future.

Shiree 'Shhhh...!' Marshall. - A quiet member of the team with great tactics. You'll get that goal one day. A brilliant season for Shiree.

Richelle 'Dorothy' Sikking. - Her famous red shoes couldn't find the yellow brick road so she followed the green turf to become a highly skilled player.

Hayley 'Cherkin Queen' Plowright. - Brilliant all rounder with amazing techniques (especially at burger king!). And a big thank you to Miss Hollis for her never-ending faith in us (and her chocolate fish bribes!).

1st XI BOYS' HOCKEY

Badminton

The season started off well this year with a large number of students who enthusiastically came along with hopes of enjoying an invigorating game of badminton. Although many dropped out, plenty of hard-hitting seniors and energetic juniors were left as competition prospects. Throughout the year we had many good games (and the odd argument), and many new friendship were made. We got used to Gregg's freak ballerina style and Phillip the comedian.

Our rep team to play Taradale was made up largely of seniors, and the odd junior, who played competitively but were no match for the dynamic Taradale team, winning only a couple of games.

Although we all played well this year and improved our games, the Neho family stood out - taking most prizes; combined doubles champion - Phillip and Lisa Neho; senior girls' champion - Lisa Neho; senior boys' champion - Phillip Neho.

I guess that's what you get when your mother is a coach.

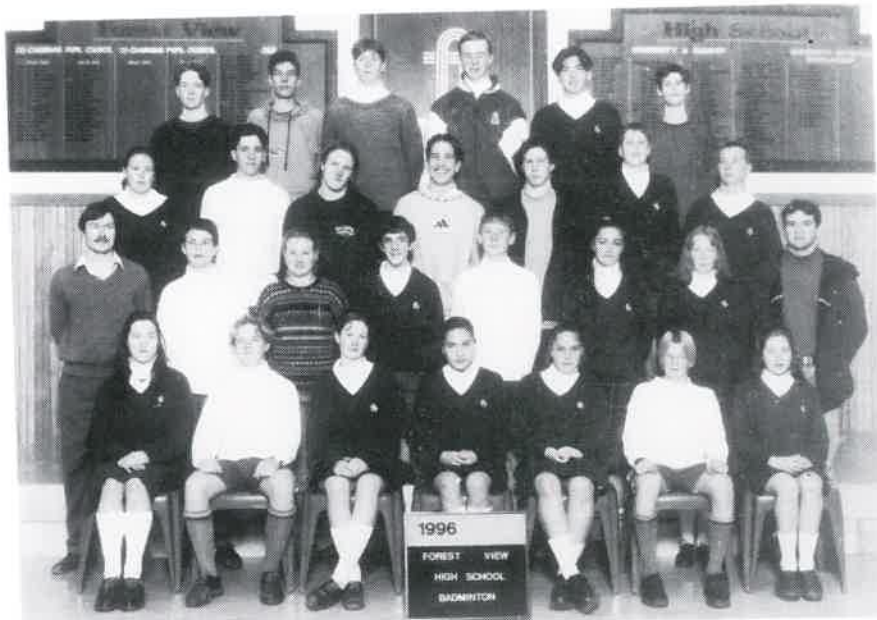

The other prizes were taken out by our all-time favourite champion players - Margaret Young and Skye De Vorms forming an unbeatable girls' double team and taking their championship, two times in a row for Margaret.

The only junior member to take a championship was Andrew Aerts sharing the boys' doubles with Phillip Neho, who successfully won all of his sections.

The most improved juniors were Claire Mathis, who only realised her talents when she took out the junior girls' section, and Fraser Murdoch who was most improved boy last year as well.

Thanks are in order once again this year to Sal Winikerei, Pink Merrylees and Sharon Neho (we all know you did something to make your kids win all their games) for coaching us and actually teaching us something. And also to Mr Tanfield for selling chocolate bars and drinks, and trusting us to lock up the gym after 5.00pm when we decided to go home.

BP Technology Challenge

Earlier in the year the Form 3 BP Technology Challenge Team competed in Rotorua. The team consisted of Leslie Johnston, Kevin Humphreys, Victoria James, Mathew Berger, Alana Blakemore, Kimberly Wellings, Kimberley Goossens, Cindy Stewart, Mary Brown and Chris Wootton.

The Form 4 team competed in the Central Waikato Challenge held in Hamilton at the end of term 3 against 27 other teams. Out of four events a group consisting of Livia Hollins, Clinton Lennon and Katie Merrie were placed second equal in one of these events, "The Ball Grabber," while the other groups fiercely contested the other three. The team consisted of Janine Mitchell, Scott Callaghan, Fraser Murdoch, Chantelle Litten, Daniel Rankin, Stacey Prole, Jennifer Proffitt, Paul De Ryk, Katie Merrie, Clinton Lennon and Livia Hollins.

Waikato Science Fair

A large number of students from Form 3 and 4 exhibited entries in the Waikato Science Fair held at the Showgrounds Building, Hamilton in August and although all were of high class, Livia Hollins and Katie Merrie were placed third in their exhibit class with their display of "The Lichfield Cheese Factory."

PE DEPT

1996 was another busy year for the PE department. After our usual busy start to the year with various school-wide events, we settled quickly into the day to day running of things. Our opening activity for the year was athletics, with many of our students working the for 5* Athletics Award. We have been delighted with the vast number of students who have achieved a certificate within this scheme. Sadly the long, hot summer days quickly faded to grey with rain, rain and yet more rain to venture outside gum voots and broly were the order of the day. Being a co-operative resourceful lot, the PE department joined forces ie doubled or trebled up in the gym to avoid being washed away. In general I am proud to say that our students responded superbly despite cramped and noisy conditions. With the return of the warmer weather we move back to summer sports such as touch, cricket, softball and tennis - what a relief to get outside again!

The end of 1996 heralds the departure of our sports co-ordinator David Elder. It has been a real pleasure to work with David, his good humour and ever present smile are guaranteed to cheer you up on a rainy day. His boys' volleyball team assure me that he was even cheerful and enthusiastic at those 6.00am practices and the describe him as a choice guy, heaps of fun and relly cool! David will be a great loss to our school and indeed Tokoroa - he has many community involvements. He will be a very hard act to follow and we all wish him well in his "real" job teaching social studies at Thames High School.

We look forward to seeing everyone in 1997.

Kathy Clark (HOD PE)

Mathematics

Mathematics classes this year were taught by Mr Prasad (HOD), Mr Judkins, Ms Hollis, Mr McGregor, Mr Griffiths, Mrs Yukich, Mrs Mace, Mrs Wilton and Mr Ford. Mr Judkins was appointed assistant Head of Department in Term 4 and our Department Head Mr Prasad has been granted a one year leave of absence for 1997. We incorporated the New Curriculum at all levels from year 9 to Year 13. Bursary (New Prescription) will be examined this year for the first time.

Skills analysis tests at Years 9, 10 and 11 have been developed to identify talents and learning gaps. For example, a Year 9 Extension programme was highly successful with 13 students chosen to participate. They will be taking the Year 11 School Certificate class next year. Barriers to learning were identified and actions were taken as much as time and resources allowed. More resources have been acquired and some developed with the aid of task force workers.

The ERO report stated that "assessing and evaluating student achievement is well advanced in the mathematics department and is proving valuable in determining the extent of student progress in various elements and the effectiveness of particular teachers." Our department leads the school in offering senior students extra help during lunchtimes, after school, and during holidays. For example, during the second week of Term 3 holiday, three 2 hour sessions per day were offered and 60% of our students sitting School Certificate took advantage of these Tutorials taught by Mr Judkins and Ms Hollis. Family maths programme was offered again this year and it gives Year 9 parents the opportunity to work with their children and with other parents to experience the New Curriculum approach to learning. Unfortunately, this five week programme did not run because not enough parents showed interest. It will be offered again next year.

Professional Development included a Learning Through Language course and workshops with our Regional Mathematics Adviser. Four staff attended Maths Applied courses ran by the national co-ordinator, subsequent to introducing these programmes next year. Also, the department attended the Bay of Plenty Maths Association Annual Conference in Whakatane that focused on the needs of secondary school Mathematics teachers.

We have had a very active year with a record number of students entering the two annual mathematics competitions. Seven out of fifty-five students who participated gained a Certificate of Merit or better. A total of 11,800 New Zealand students from 252 schools entered. Students gaining a Certificate of Merit are in the top 15%, Top One Hundred Certificate in the top 2% and Outstanding Award in the top 1% of their age group competitors.

Aidan Harrison	- Year 9 - Top One Hundred Certificate
Colin Houltham	- Year 9 - Top One Hundred Certificate
Rebecca Dowdle	- Certificate of Merit
Bryan Sinclair	- Certificate of Merit
David Milne	- Year 10 - Outstanding Award
Daniel Moore	- Year 10 - Certification of Merit
Graeme Edgeler	- Year 11 - Top One Hundred Certificate

David Milne's Outstanding Award earned him a $50.00 cheque and a certificate.

On July 30, 231 maths enthusiasts at FVHS joined 540,000 other students in an international competition organised by the University of Canberra. This Australian Maths Competition saw 40 of our students gaining Certificate of Credit or better.

At this point, I would like to express my sincere thanks to all the Maths Department staff, the Senior Administration, and Office staff who have given me much valuable support over the last three years. Also, to the many students whom I had a pleasure to teach and who have enriched my teaching experience. Finally, to the many parents and community members who have been helpful in one way or another. My very best wishes to everyone.

Tena koutou katoa.

Raj Prasad, HOD Mathematics

Social Sciences

1996 has been a busy year for the Social Sciences Department. This year the Department has welcomed the following new staff: Miss S. Crosby, Mr B. King and Mr G. Steyn. Ms Graham left at the end of term three to live in Wanganui and wait for the arrival of her new baby. We wish her well. Ms J. Risbridge replaced her as HOD at the beginning of term four.

The Curriculum freeze has meant that Unit Standards being offered at Year 11 History level ceased in May of this year. The Department is looking forward to continuing this type of work at many levels on the National Framework when all matters are settled.

The new revised Social Studied Draft has undergone many developments throughout the year. The Department is enthusiastic about implementing the new draft - its units of learning and assessment activities.

History

The Year 11 History trip to the Waiouru Army Museum, proved to be a highlight for the students involved. From guns to movies, tanks, stories about war and even a greenstone wall - the trip ensured students gained a valuable insight into NZ's military past and some even found a few ancestors. Year 12 and 13 History classes have enjoyed learning about such topics:

Vietnam, the Russian Revolution and Tudor-Stuart England.

So, another year draws to a close and we can now look forward to a long and safe holiday. Good luck to all those sitting examinations and we look forward to 1997.

Geography

Forest View High School welcomed three new Geography teachers this year. Miss Crosby, Ms Hollis and Mr Steyn. Once again, the Geography students of Forest View High School have completed an enlightening year.

The fifth form classes were fortunate to participate in three field trips. Half a day was spent by each class at the Mathis dairy farm, as a part of their resources study. These students also spent an afternoon observing forestry operations courtesy of Mr Portegys and CHH Forests. Finally, in term four there was a trip to the Huntly Coalmines which was most informative. The students also learned about population studies and natural hazards as a part of their course. The sixth form Geographers went on two field trips. They carried out their fieldwork for their urban studies unit by studying suburbs of Auckland. Then later in the year they visited various locations around the Central Volcanic Plateau as a part of their study of the area. During the year, the students also completed units of work about tropical rain forests, Brazil and Great Britain.

The seventh form studied volcanism in the Central North Island. As a part of this unit, the students spent several days at Tongariro National park carrying out fieldwork for their bursary studies. The form seven course also included studies of tourism and planning.

Special Needs

Forest View High School has aimed to ensure through this year that all students had an equitable opportunity to achieve to their maximum potential and remove as many barriers to learning as possible. This has included providing learning programmes and financial support to a wide range of students. Through the Targeted Funding for Educational Achievement we have provided Teachers Aide time to support teachers and students within the classroom and ensure the Library remains open for longer hours. A group of students were supported to attend a holiday seminar for able students at Auckland University. Keyboards bought for music students and a piano teacher brought to the school to support our students studying Performance Music.

Buses have been subsidised for senior students to go to drama productions in Hamilton, Year 11 Geography to go on a field trip to Huntly and individual students have received support for sporting, cultural and academic activities. We have aimed to make sure no students are excluded from participating in the life of the school for financial reasons and this has included the purchasing of uniforms and necessary books and equipment.

Special Needs within this school includes all students who are disadvantaged and this includes students unable to get the subject choices they may want often through timetable clashes or a need to study at higher or lower levels than their normal programme.

This year we have had fifty students studying a variety of Correspondence subjects to cater for these needs. These students are expected to meet deadlines and must be self-motivated to succeed. Year 11 French students were able to have lengthy conference calls talking to their teacher in Wellington this year. Some lasted up to an hour! Also studying by correspondence are those Junior students on individual English programmes.

Three teams were entered in the Future Problem Solving competition. The noisiest team turned out to be best. The teams were beginning to make major improvements just when the final assessment took place. These students should be encouraged to do well in 1997. A Study Centre has been run prior to mid-year and external exams. It is great to see those who turn up but really disappointing that so few students take the opportunity of this. It is the chance to have study support from teachers in a range of subject areas.

An exciting new development this area of the school has been represented is the Tokoroa Pacific Islands Community Liaison Project which will begin 1997 and continue through 1998. This project is to provide the Tokoroa Pacific Islands school age children, their families and their schools with the support and resources to strengthen the links between home and schools. These strengthened links are to lead to enhanced learning and achievement by Pacific Islands children.

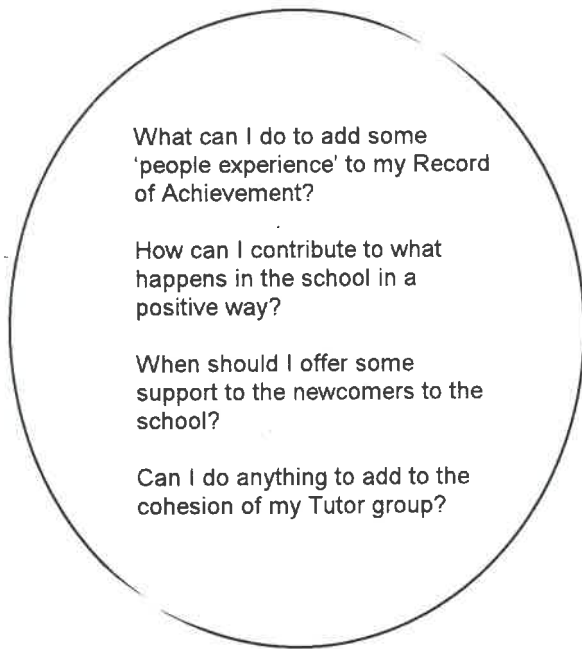

This school works hard to break down any barriers, seek out new opportunities for students. We really want to make sure each student has the chance to reach their individual potential.

From 12' x 9' to Flash Facilities

Ever tried to fit four parents, two students and a guidance counsellor into a 12' x 9' room? (not to mention a desk, a filing cabinet and two cupboards). It's difficult! 1996 marked the end of that sort of problem when the new Guidance suite was opened in B block. This comprises the Guidance Counsellor's office as well as a new Career Information room and Career teacher's office. The Guidance room now measures about 17' x 22' and is equipped with sofas, comfortable chairs, coffee tables and tea making facilities as well as a large whiteboard and lots of shelving and notice boards. Ah, what luxury! Group work and counselling as well as mini meetings can now occur in comfortable surrounds, and for those students who are upset of 'stressed out' there is a hot drink as well as a listening ear available. The Career Information room opposite is specially equipped and offers the most up-to-date information and an efficient service to students who are exploring their future career plans. So now, whatever your need, you can be assured of comfortable facilities and modern surroundings. See you there!
